

Sunil Puri
Senior Vice President, Research & Engagement
Stewardship Asia Centre

Sunil is responsible for research and thought leadership, and he designs educational programmes, events, toolkits and frameworks. Prior to joining SAC, Sunil was a Senior Director and Head of APAC Research with the Center for Creative Leadership (CCL) in Singapore, where he led the development of new products (events, programmes, tools) based on research, partnered with clients as a leadership subject-matter expert and developed annual research agenda with global stakeholders to execute research initiatives. Between 2014 and 2016, he was the Head of Research & Insights with Human Capital Leadership Institute (HCLI), where he led Pan-Asia research initiatives on “Asian leader development”. He also worked as an Independent Consultant in India for a few years and was with CEB India (now Gartner) in India and USA for 8 years.

Sunil graduated with a Master of Technology in Energy Studies from Indian Institute of Technology Delhi. He also has an MBA from Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad. He has authored several research studies and wrote articles for Economic Times, The Business Times and Harvard Business Review.